Table Talk

1. How am I fighting personal sin with the understanding of Christ's liberating work?

2. What lies am I believing and framing my thoughts and actions around that need to be exposed to the truth and thus enable me to be set free? Maybe it's even the lie that I am not susceptible to any lies.

3. How does Christ's once for all satisfaction of God's demands touch your everyday life and motives for why you do what you do?

4. What fears are gripping your thoughts? What aspects of the love of Christ would be helpful to consider in controlling those fears?

5. What is truly the purpose for which you are living? For whom are you actually living?

6. Do you embrace that freedom to live for others is truly freedom?
